

Academic Journal of Historical Studies of Social Welfare

No.63 December, 2023

Contents

【Preface】

Where Does Social Welfare Studies Seek Its Foundation ? Isamu HOSOI (6)

【Special Feature of This Issue】

Methods of Social Welfare Studies: Retrospect and Prospect Takayoshi FURUKAWA (10)

Unraveling the Relationship between Labor, Welfare, and Education:
Focusing on the 1960s and 1970s Isamu HOSOI (25)

Education, Welfare, and Labor in Postwar Japan as Seen from the Evening Junior High School:
Focusing on College Student Clubs in the 1960s and 1970s Satoshi EGUCHI (43)

Social Movements of Minorities and Social Welfare in the 1960s and 1970s
Midori NISHIZAKI (59)

Encountering Chikuho and Meeting Jesus: How the Industrial Nature of Social Movements
Can Be Overcome Mitsuhiro INUKAI (75)

From Unionism and Education to Anarcha-Feminism Tomoyoshi INAI (85)

【Articles】

The Arrests of Persons Involved in Social Work in Tokyo: Comparison of Arrests in the 1930s and 1940s Kaori WATANABE (93)

Hiroshi Urabe's Interpretation of the "Day Nursery Provision" at the Time of the Enactment of the Child Welfare Law and His Ideological Background: The Continuity of His Ideological
Background from Wartime to the Postwar Period. Koichi SATOH (107)

Relief for the Poor in the Sorachi Coalfield: Case of Bibai City, Hokkaido during the "Energy Revolution Era" Masashi TAIRA (123)

【Special Contribution】

Tsuji Choka and the Charitable Relief Performances in the Republic of China era
Guo Changying (139)

【Book Reviews】

Kentaro TOMINAGA (153)
Tomoko TACHINAMI (159)

【Book Guide】

Ai SENGU (169)
Yusuke FUJIMORI (176)
Minori UTSUNOMIYA (183)

【Self-Book Review】

Tomoaki MOTOMURA (189)

Tomoya ISHII (190)
Subaru NODA (197)